NOTICE

1. This certificate is valid only when carried together with your driver's license.
2. Regardless of the end date of the postponement period, if you fail to renew your driver's license or undergo an aptitude test within three months from the date on which the grounds for postponement cease to exist, you may be subject to administrative disadvantages due to the expiration of the prescribed period.
3. Please note that failure to undergo the aptitude test by the end date of the postponement period may result in the revocation of your driver's license or other adverse administrative measures. When renewing your driver's license or undergoing the aptitude test, you must bring documents proving that the grounds for postponement have ceased to exist.
4. Pursuant to Article 57(2) of the Enforcement Decree of the Road Traffic Act, a person subject to occasional aptitude tests may postpone such tests only once, for a period not exceeding one year.
